++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Largely dry tonight, turning wetter and windy on Tuesday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Showers gradually fading through the evening until only isolated ones along the coast remain overnight. Feeling cool under prolonged clear intervals but turning more widely cloudy in the early hours with light rain reaching the west by dawn. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Tuesday:
Rain spreading eastwards and turning patchier in the afternoon. Quickly turning windy in the north first thing, with strong gusts developing, and becoming breezy elsewhere. Feeling milder than Monday. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Unsettled second half of the week. Outbreaks of rain likely every day, becoming heavy and prolonged at times, particularly in the north and west. Rather mild and windy throughout.
